SIR,

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 3019 dated the 9th instant, regarding the arrangements to be made for the custody of 64 Four per cent Mysore State Loan of 1906-07 belonging to various Muzrai Institutions and standing in your name (official designation) and for realising and crediting the interest on the pro-notes as it falls due. If it is your intention that the pro-notes should remain in my custody, I request that you will draw the interest due on the 1st April and 1st October 1907 agreeably to article 164 of the Civil Account Code and credit the amounts to the institutions concerned and send the pro-notes to me duly endorsed in favour of the Dewan of Mysore (the words "Pay the Dewan of Mysore or order" being entered in the .... first page on the back of each pro-note) with a covering list for the pro-note or pro-notes belonging to each Muzrai Institution ... (vide article 165, Civil Account Code).

2. After the pro-notes are received in this office necessary steps will be taken to draw the future half yearly interests as they become due and the total amount, less ½ % commission .... charged by this office for drawing and remitting the interest, will be remitted in the same manner as is now done in the case of Government of India Pro-notes, to the Deputy Commissioners concerned

Correspondence ending with letter No. 3892 –B. R 746, dated 24th January 1908, from the Comptroller to the Government of Mysore, pointing out the procedure to be adopted for the custody of the Four per cent Mysore State Loan papers purchased on behalf of and belonging to the several Muzrai Institutions in the State.

No. 5803-10—MUZ. 1-1906, DATED BANGALORE, 27TH JUNE 1908.

ORDER THEREON.—In Government Proceedings No. Fl. 1509-280-04-37, dated 15th August 1906, imposing an aggregate limit of Rs. 5,000 on individual Savings Bank Deposits in Mysore, an opportunity was afforded to Savings Bank Depositors having balances in excess of Rs. 5,000 to invest such excess in the Four per cent State Loan newly opened by the Government. This opportunity was availed of and the funds of the several Muzrai Institutions aggregating Rs. 2,20,000 which were in the Savings Bank, were invested in the new Four per cent Loan and Pro-notes were purchased for that sum in the name of the Muzrai Secretary. The Comptroller was subsequently requested to make the necessary arrangements for the safe custody of these Pro-notes and the periodical drawing of interest accruing thereon, and crediting it to the institutions concerned. The Comptroller in the communication read above states that if the Pro-notes belonging to the several Muzrai Institutions in the State should remain in his custody, the interest due thereon up to date should be drawn by the Muzrai Secretariat and credited to the funds of the institutions concerned agreeably to Article 164 of the Civil Account Code, that the Pro-notes should thereafter be endorsed in favor of the Dewan of Mysore, (the words "Pay the Dewan of Mysore or order" being entered in the first cage on the back of each Pro-note) and that a covering list should be forwarded with the Pro-notes showing the institutions to which they belong. After the Pro-notes are received in his office the Comptroller states that the necessary steps will be taken by him to draw the future half-yearly interest, as it becomes due and the total amount of interest less ¼ per cent commission charged in his office for drawing and remitting the interest, will be realized in the same manner as is done in the case of the Government of India Pro-notes and remitted to the Deputy Commissioners or other officers concerned for credit to the respective institutions according to the covering lists accompanying the Pro-notes.

2. The interest due on the Pro-notes for the first three half-years ending with 31st March 1908 has been drawn by the Muzrai Secretariat from the Bangalore District Treasury and remitted to the respective Deputy Commissioners and Amildars for being credited to the institutions concerned.

3. It is desirable that the Pro-notes above referred to, which belong to Muzrai Institutions, should remain in the custody of the Comptroller. The Government accordingly direct that the marginally noted Pro-notes now in the custody of the Muzrai Department be transferred to the Dewan's name and forwarded to the Comptroller with a covering list showing the institutions to which they belong for the needful action being taken in his office in future. The usual commission of ¼ per cent charged by the Comptroller for drawing and remitting the interest may be deducted from the half-yearly interest and the net amount remitted to the Deputy Commissioners and other officers concerned who will take the necessary credit for the interest immediately on receipt of intimation from the Comptroller.
